PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR. for the last two years and had met him when they were both members of SIGMA NU FRATERNITY. He indicated that they were both in the Air Force Reserves and that he was very closely associated with PHIL GEORGE while he was in school. DUNCAN described him as a very intelligent individual, conscientious and hard-working, very normal in every respect. DUNCAN stated PHIL GEORGE was a man of good morals and had a good reputation. DUNCAN stated that most of his associates were fellow-school friends as well as Fraternity Brothers. As far as he knew, he said that PHIL GEORGE's loyalty was beyond question.

Mr. LYNDON ROBB, Investment Broker with offices at 903 Fair Oaks, South Pasadena, stated that he was the Faculty Investigator for the SIGMA NU FRATERNITY and had known PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR. during the time that he was in school from the spring of 1946, to June 1948. ROBB stated that when PHIL GEORGE was first in school, he had resided at the Fraternity House but had later resided in a bachelor apartment on 40th Place. Although he was not intimately acquainted with the applicant, he said that he had never heard of anything which would reflect upon his character, loyalty or associates and stated that he recommended him for any position of trust and confidence.

CREDIT

The Retail Merchants Credit Association of Los Angeles reported no derogatory information concerning PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR.

CRIMINAL

The Los Angeles Sheriff's Office, Los Angeles Police Department, San Bernardino Sheriff's Office and San Bernardino Police Department have no record of PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR.

 Bureau letter dated November 10, 1948

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

The applicant's Army officer and enlisted service record, ASN 0-877151 and 19177741, respectively, shows that he was born July 22, 1923, at San Bernardino, California; entered service December 8, 1942, at San Diego State College, San Diego, California, as a Private, Enlisted Reserve Corps, and was called to active duty on February 12, 1943. He was released from active duty on January 12, 1946, at Mc Clallen Field, California, as a Second Lieutenant. His file reflected one efficiency rating of excellent. The applicant received an unsatisfactory academic rating because of his low standing in a course in electronics and cathode ray tubes at the Army Electronics Training Center, Harvard University. However, he subsequently served as an electronics officer. His record contained no derogatory information.

The following records were checked with negative results:

considered him to be a person of good character, a loyal American citizen, and that he would recommend him for the position for which he was applying. KENNEDY stated that he knew nothing derogatory about GEORGE.

Employment at CONSOLIDATED-VULTEE AIRCRAFT CORPORATION verified. Mrs. MILDRED REPPETO advised that their records showed GEORGE was employed by their firm from July 30, 1941 to September 8, 1942, as a Planning Clerk and on the latter date he secured leave of absence to enter the military service. REPPETO advised that GEORGE was eligible for rehire and that there was nothing derogatory in his record.

Neighborhood investigation conducted at San Diego. Nothing derogatory.

Mrs. LOIS AULT, 3544 Wilshire Terrace, a next-door-neighbor, advised that she had lived next to GEORGE's family since May of this year and that she considered them to be people of good character and loyal American citizens. AULT further advised that GEORGE's parents run a restaurant in San Diego and that she believed his father had formerly been a Greek sailor. Mrs. AULT stated she considered both GEORGE and his parents to be loyal American citizens and that she knew nothing derogatory about them.

Mrs. RICHERT, 3530 Wilshire Terrace, a next-door-neighbor of GEORGE's, advised that she had known GEORGE and his parents for the past ten years and that she considered them to be people of good character and loyal American citizens. She stated that GEORGE's parents ran a restaurant in San Diego and that they were very quiet people and good neighbors. Mrs. RICHERT advised that she knew nothing derogatory about either GEORGE or his parents.

LOUIS MAJORS, a reference, Vice President for Hamilton's Food Store, 7th and C, San Diego, advised that he had known GEORGE and his parents for the past fifteen years and that he considered both GEORGE and his parents to be people of excellent character and loyal American citizens. Mr. MAJORS advised that GEORGE had worked part-time at Hamilton's from December, 1940 to July, 1941, in the Shipping and Delivery Department and that he had left their employment to return to school. Mr. MAJORS also stated that GEORGE's father ran "Phil's Sandwich Shop" which was just across the street from Hamilton's and that GEORGE's father had at one time worked for him. Mr. MAJORS stated that he would recommend GEORGE for any position for which he applied and that he knew nothing derogatory about him.

MALCOLM ROBBINS, formerly of 1074 Cleveland, now located at 741 Queenstown Court, Mission Beach, a reference, advised that he had known GEORGE for the past nine years and that he had gone to high school and San Diego State College with him. Mr. ROBBINS stated he considered GEORGE to be a person of good character, a loyal American citizen, and that he knew nothing derogatory about him.

Mr. ROBBINS advised GEORGE attended the University of Southern California, where he studied architecture. ROBBINS also stated that he knew GEORGE's parents and considered them good, reputable citizens and loyal Americans. He stated they ran a cafe called "Phil's Cafe". ROBBINS advised that GEORGE's father was a Greek and that he knew nothing derogatory about either of GEORGE's parents.

LAWRENCE MAHR, home address 1504 Robinson, business address Reuther Company, Market and Flower Streets, advised that he had known GEORGE for the past ten years and that he had attended high school with him and considered him to be dependable, trustworthy, and a loyal American citizen. Mr. MAHR advised that GEORGE had entered the military service where he had become an Electronics Officer. He further stated that GEORGE had studied Architecture at the University of Southern California and that he would recommend him for any position for which he applied. MAHR advised that GEORGE's parents run a restaurant in San Diego and that his father is Greek. He believed his mother to be Spanish. He said he considered GEORGE's parents to be people of excellent character and that he knew nothing derogatory about them.

applicant's associates. GALLION indicated that the applicant had never been the subject of any disciplinary action and that his conduct while in the College of Architecture was exemplary.

Mr. CALVIN STRAUB, Professor of Design at the College of Architecture, advised that he knew PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR. quite well, having had him in a number of courses for the period of time that he was enrolled in the school. He indicated that while the applicant was at the University, that he lived by himself in a small bachelor apartment near the school and during the second year of his attendance was partially self-supporting, doing miscellaneous design work for various independent architects. STRAUB could not recall the names of any of these architects. He advised that this practice was very common among architect students. STRAUB described the applicant as an intelligent individual who always participated in class-room discussions. STRAUB stated that he believed him to be reliable and trust-worthy. From his association with PHIL GEORGE, JR., it was his opinion that he had good morals and high standards and a good code of ethics. He had never heard him say anything which would in any way reflect upon his loyalty to this Government. STRAUB stated that, as far as he knew, his associates were fellow-students and fraternity brothers of his while he was studying at the University.

RESIDENCE

Mrs. J. S. STEWART, 644-1/2 West 40th Place, Los Angeles, advised that she had resided at this address for a number of years and had formerly been the Manager of the BUNGALOW COURT at this address. She indicated that PHIL BASIL GEORGE, JR. had resided at 646-1/4, West 40th Place, from some time in the summer of 1946 until June of 1948, when he left and his place was taken over by JACK DUNCAN, who was one of his closest friends. Mrs. STEWART stated that PHIL GEORGE was a good tenant, always paid the rent, minded his own business and, as far as she knew, never became involved in any trouble. She stated that his conduct was good while at this residence. She advised that she believed him to be loyal and did not know anything derogatory concerning his associates.

GILBERT BROWN, House Manager of the SIGMA NU FRATERNITY and BOB KING, another SIGMA NU, advised that they were both personally acquainted with the applicant and that for a short period of time in 1946, he had resided at the SIGMA NU FRATERNITY HOUSE at 625 West 28th Street. They recommended him highly as to character, loyalty and associations.

matter. Bureau letter to NY, 8/7/63, captioned matter.

Enclosed are the original and four (4) copies for the Bureau and one (1) copy for WFO of a LHM dated and captioned as above. One (1) copy is being furnished to WFO inasmuch as that office is origin in the case entitled "VISIT OF AMERICAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION COMMITTEE TO USSR, 1959."

The jurisdiction and responsibility of the Bureau in the internal security field were explained to GEORGE and he appeared completely cooperative.

GEORGE stated that he would immediately notify the FBI if ever he is contacted or receives information of contacts by Soviet nationals.

In accordance with instructions set forth in reBulet, New York's approach to GEORGE was made in the nature of determining whether he has any knowledge that members of the American National Exhibition were approached by the Soviets.

ReNYlet 7-25-63.

Bufiles contain no identifiable derogatory information concerning subject. By letter dated 4-3-63 subject expressed thanks for the Bureau's suggestions for possible FBI exhibit participation in the United States Pavilion of the New York World's Fair. That letter indicates subject is Assistant Commissioner, United States Commission, New York World's Fair.

In accordance with your request, authority is granted for you to interview subject. In view of his responsible position, your approach to him should be in the nature of determining whether he has any knowledge that members of the American National Exhibition were approached by the Soviets. Such an approach should enable you to ascertain whether Soviets attempted to compromise or recruit him.

Re WFO letter to Bureau, 9/4/62, enclosing list of individuals who had indicated their intention to travel to Moscow in 1959. Relet requested that individual cases be opened for preliminary investigation and recommendations concerning interview. Among the individuals listed was PHILIP B. GEORGE, JR. and NY indices do not reflect that he has been interviewed.

GEORGE's date of birth was listed as 7/22/23, his address as 150 East 50th Street, NYC, and his employment as George Nelson Company.

DANIEL MITCHELL, corporate secretary, George Nelson Company, 25 East 22nd Street, NYC, on 7/8/63, advised SA BURRELL D. LEASE that PHILIP GEORGE left this company in March, 1962, and his address was 411 East 58th Street, NYC. Mr. MITCHELL said his records show that GEORGE's business phone now is LT 1-6611.

An anonymous phone call on 7/12/63, by SA LEASE to this number reflected that LT 1-6611 is that of the United States Commission for the New York World's Fair, 60 West 49th Street, NYC.

Miss LOIS COLLINS, receptionist, US Commission, NY World's Fair, Room 909, 60 West 49th Street, NYC, on 7/17/63, advised SA LEASE that PHILIP GEORGE is an Assistant Commissioner who lives at 411 East 58th Street, NYC.

EZIO PISANI MASSAMORILE, 430 East 58th Street, NYC, on 7/17/63, advised SA LEASE that he is superintendent at 411 East 58th Street, NYC, and is aware that Mr. GEORGE lives at the latter address, although he is not acquainted with him.

Philip B. George, Jr.
(Visit of American
National Exhibition Committee to Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 1959)

Philip B. George, Jr., 411 East 58th Street, New York, New York, Assistant Commissioner, United States Commission, New York World's Fair, 60 West 49th Street, New York, New York, advised Special Agent (SA) Robert Vanderhoven on September 18, 1963, that he was in charge of the crew of employees from the George Nelson Company of 25 East 22nd Street, New York, New York, who were sent by said company to work on the American National Exhibition in Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), in 1959.

Mr. George stated that he had never been approached by any Soviet national and he knew of no other employees of the Exhibit of his acquaintance having been approached in such a manner which would indicate compromise on his or their part or of a nature which would not have been in the best interest of the United States.

Mr. George stated that the only unusual incident was when a young male Russian, claiming to be a student architect, approached him and several of his colleagues on a Moscow street. This unknown Russian tried to engage in conversation with them stating he knew they were architects. Mr. George advised that he never learned how this young Soviet knew that he and his colleagues were in fact architects, and he never saw nor heard of the young Russian again.
